Tony Cradeur I didn't know much about roofing at the time when I worked for her but even then I knew what we left wasn't right. I helped with the roof job on this ladies trailer about 3 years ago. It's not good, we had to watch where we stepped so we wouldn't fall in. One of the main rafters wasn't even connected to the truss. There was some connected to the truss. There was some serious damage along the edges that she just had us patch over with shingles. If you get up there, watch your step. When I asked why we weren't fixing it she just laughed and said there wasn't enough money to fix it. Shortly after I abruptly ended working for her for obvious reasons, she stole $32k from me. I'm sorry to admit that this is my sister. I will gladly speak on Ms, Bridgette's behalf if it will help. I'm so sorry 💔 If there's anything I can do to help this situation out.

Estea Sharp Hi! My Facebook account got hacked, so I had to use this one which I thankfully had because Google logged into it.

I think I'm going to have to pursue breach of contract. Contractor Fraud won't do a single thing even though they should. I don't have a formal contract, but I have our conversation with agreements.

Charlotte lied so much to me. Even the flooring that looks nice isn't what was promised, and what was promised is even cheaper than what is in the insurance estimate.

Of course, I couldn't see it in the moment

Of course, I couldn't see it in the moment, but Charlotte was always after stealing the money.

She is such an awful person - gaslightingme over everything, too. And yelling at me and I have no idea if her stories are true. But, I certainly don't think her familv hates her because she's $202,021 to her - my house should've be fully fixed with the few extras I wanted for that. With brand new items, not all of the icky stuff she used. And two ladies were so certain she could fix my air conditioning when it went out . . . so I reluctantly agreed to her coming back on to my property to fix it as one lady took me out to Waffle House and the other me out to Waffle House and the other stayed on my property to supposedly watch Charlotte. She put rodents in my ventilation and ceiling. They weren't there until after she came back. And they eventually scratched out.

She cut the pipes for gas, took out my water heaters, and didn't even put the water heaters, and didn't even put the little exhaust pipe in the attic for gas to escape.

She did no work in the kitchen and barely anything in my front room, didn't fix my fences, painted over dirty surfaces, and so much more awful stuff.

And all other people do is call her and

And all other people do is call her and she lies to them saying that I owe her $40,000. She doesn't have a single receipt or spreadsheet, but says she does. Nobody makes her produce them.

I am so sorry Bridget... you didn't deserve that treatment from her 💔

She is definitely lying to you. Her family doesn't associate with her because of all the awful things she's done to us.

She recently stole $32,000 from me, the awful things she's done to us.

She recently stole $32,000 from me, legally! I always stayed in touch with her because I felt bad that none of the other family had anything to do with her. I learned my lesson the hard way!

If there is anything I can do, I will help out any way I can. I don't even know what I could do except attest to her out any way I can. I don't even know what I could do except attest to her character and history with stealing LARGE amounts of money from people.

I hope you find the right people to help you out! Let me know if there's anything I can do!

Estea Sharp I'll let you know! I'll probably end up needing that. You can add me here on Facebook to keep in touch. FB only lets me request about five friends every two days - it's become so restrictive.
